Hi Don,

I wanted to take a second to introduce you to Roberto, who is a USC student working on a graduate project in our district. Roberto has asked our office to help his team get in touch with some key community stakeholders so they can get information related to the research that they are doing. I'm cc'ing Roberto here, and am hoping that you might have some time to talk with him.

Please let me know if you have any questions, and thanks so much!

Hope all is well,
Tricia
